Student Life

Dear Seniors:

The opportunity to spend the past two years with you as your assistant principal has not only been incredibly rewarding but an experience that I will always cherish. After all, this is the first graduating class that I have been responsible for as a school leader at Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School. The personal connections we have formed, the adversity we have overcome and the accomplishments we have celebrated personify the pride I have in this class of special people. The colleges you will attend, the careers you will pursue, or the military service you will give to our country are admirable and your greatness will continue to impress the Dighton-Rehoboth community and beyond.

The positive relationships we have formed together as a class will be life lasting. I'll remember going to your sporting events, theatrical performances, Mr. DR, the talent show, and watching you participate in DR's best ever spirit week. As a symbol of your character, your class came together, helping to triple the previous record for most non-perishable items donated to local food pantries. You also beat the junior class in a very close spirited competition. I was excited to see so many of you the night before the first pep rally to decorate the gym with senior and falcon pride. The Class of 2014 even had my back in rallying to see Mr. Braga get pied in his face! We enjoyed the woodcarver, Mr. Michael Higgins, visit the school and create a life size Falcon which will be showcased in our Rehoboth foyer for many years to come. We celebrated two seniors each week for their accomplishments as the High Five's. This past year, we witnessed the Red Sox win the World Series in style, sporting our best Boston pride gear. It was a great way to come together following the tragedy of the Boston Marathon bombings in April 2013. This was also the class that brought the school the first annual Dodgeball Tournament, Honor Bowl championships, Mock Trial trips to the sweet 16, and the math team beating surrounding private schools became every day occurrences. Homecoming, Winter Balls, and Proms gave me the good fortune of seeing everyone dress in formal attire to dance the night away with your friends.

As you move along in your lives, we will certainly miss seeing you each day here at DRRHS. I often consider my role as your assistant principal as your "school guardian"- and I have to say- watching you grow into the people you are today has been incredibly gratifying. Thank you for being such a respectful and kind class. The Class of 2014 will forever be a collection of the finest, sincerest, and most personable students that I have encountered. Please do visit, call, or write as I hope we continue to keep in touch- through the challenges you will face and the good fortunes you will embrace.

Best Wishes,

Mr. Harrison
Assistant Principal

Pop Culture Day

D-R's Pop Culture Day was celebrated by both the faculty and D-R's student body alike. It was a creative, fun, and interesting part of Spirit Week when everybody at D-R was dressed as their favorite movie characters, book characters, TV stars and famous musicians. Top pop culture outfits included many "Despicable Me" Minions!

Spirit Week 2013

America Day

Friday was America Day, the first of its kind. Teachers and students were decked out in red, white, and blue. Stars and stripes were seen throughout. High-spirited anticipation filled the school for next week's events. While the contest between the Juniors and Seniors heated up, the Seniors brought in well over 1,200 cans for the local pantry.

Senior Appreciation Day

This day kicked off the first day of rallies. After a long half day of classes the students hit the gym for a great afternoon full of competition. Tug-of-war seemed to be the favorite to watch amongst the students at D-R. New events like the Marshmallow Toss were added. By the end of the day's events Seniors surpassed the Juniors in total points leaving tensions very high for the next day's events.

Green & Gold Day

The second day of the rallies was kicked off with the spirit from head to toe in green and gold. After all the events took place, the DR marching band performed to get the students riled up for the upcoming game against rival, Seekonk. The final result of Spirit Week ended with the seniors placing first, followed by the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen!

Captains Dance

On Thanksgiving morning, the Falcons defeated rival Seekonk 47-19. Halfback Kyle Rose rushed for 315 yards and scored four touchdowns. Jacob Juncker added two more touchdowns and Norman Manchester one. Go Falcons!

Final Score

D-R: 47

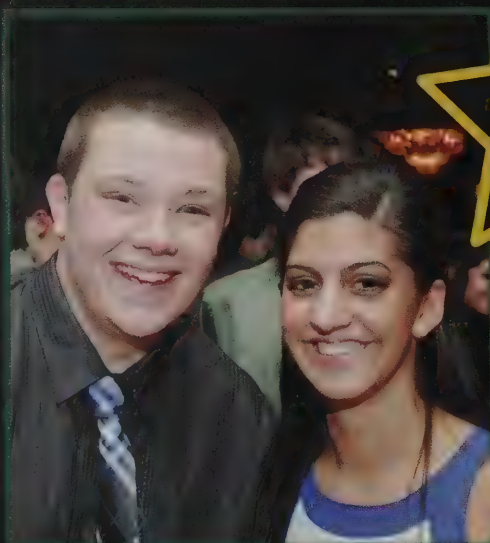

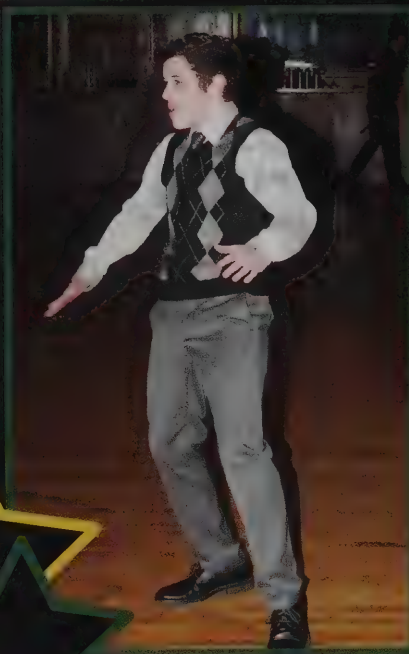

Seekonk: 19

2013 Football

The 2013 Falcon Varsity Football Team finished with a 7-4 record. The team defeated Bourne, GNBVT, Somerset, Fairhaven and Wareham during the regular season. A trip to the playoffs yielded a thrilling 35-21 victory over Somerset in which Nate Kowalski tossed two touchdown passes to Kyle Rose and Rose added two more on the ground. A hard-fought 19-14 loss to Plymouth North eliminated the Falcons from the playoffs. On Thanksgiving morning, the Falcons defeated rival Seekonk 47-19. Halfback Kyle Rose rushed for 315 yards and scored four touchdowns. Jacob Juncker added two more touchdowns and Norman Manchester one. Matt Morais, Andrew Whitmore and Cam Card played outstanding defense all year. Jacob Juncker was the winner of the Thomas Abbruzzi Award as the team's most outstanding player.

The Falcon grapplers had a great start with a 5th place finish at the Taunton tournament (out of 28 teams). Chris Duffy (220) and Joe Tomellini (138) both won their brackets and Brandon Tran (113) earned 2nd. Injuries and other issues hurt the team's numbers as the season went on, and they finished with a dual meet record of 5-17-1 this year. Brandon Tran also won 1st place at the Westerly (RI) Tournament.

In the post-season, Senior Ryan Ramos (285) placed 5th at the Div. II South tournament, Senior Captain Joe Tomellini placed 1st, and Junior Brandon Tran placed 2nd. At the Div. II STATE tournament, Brandon Tran went on to place 5th, and continued the following week to place 8th in the MA All-State tournament – becoming the first D-R Wrestler to achieve this level.

I love you! Mom

Luke

You've grown up-it seems so fast! One minute a little boy, the next a man. I wish I could go back, re-experience some of the best moments. At the same time I'm happy to see who you've become...a kind, thoughtful man with a good heart and strong work-ethic. The future is yours, stay on the path you've begun, it is perfect... Love you Luke,
Mom

Kyle Arieta

Senior year is over - here's some advice that will come in handy navigating through college and beyond: The sky is the limit; there is nothing you cannot do. You are the navigator of your destiny - dream big and work hard. You deserve nothing but the best that life has to offer! Don't hold back because you are afraid to fail! Some of the greatest lessons we learn about ourselves come from our mistakes. Learn from them and you will grow.

We are so proud of you Kyle, and can't wait to see where this next journey brings you.

Love,

Mom, Carlos, & Nicole
